HERITAGE VEGETABLES

Squash

1 Andrew Stanley – Uchiki Kuri squash of deep russet hue. Well ripened and closely aligned in shape

Other

1 Kathryn Teo – perfectly matched symmetrical torpedoes. Green but dangerous achochia!

2 Nick Ruggles – aromatic hops full of fragrance and beery promise. Well done for growing here rather than in Kent!

FRUIT

Apples

1 Buala Rice – fairly uniform in size with good colour and blemish free. Nice clean flesh inside

2 Amy Sims – good uniform size and shape. Very green so not sure about ripeness

Pears – no entries

Small plate of soft fruit

1 Martin Scotton – good uniform size, shape, and quality of raspberries. Look delicious – and they were!

2 Amy Sims – uniform size with slight variation in colour and ripeness

Flowers – mixed floral arrangement

1 Yasmin Allen and Nick Ruggles – nice open arrangement and combination of flowers and fillers, in particular the use of dried seed pods

2 Liz Rigge – nice presentation with good choice of dahlia types and varieties. Flowers in good condition and nice shape and form to the arrangement

3 Christine Kinght – good combination of colours and types. Nice presentation
